NEVADA .-- Five years ago next July Horace Greeley traversed the region now known as Nevsda Territory, then the ontlying western portion of Utah. At least ninety-nine handledths of it had never had the dwelling of the civilized human beings within sight. He travelled come four or five hundred miles within the present limits of Nevada, and never saw a field of grain nor a decent honse therein till he strack Carson river, near its "sink," the day before he crossed the Sierra into Ca'iformia. There was one house—a very new one at Virginia City, now the capital of the Territory, with hundreds of edifices and thoueands of inhabitants; there was a green and beautiful valley at the head of the Carson, and a smart young village therein known as Genoa, where he found a newspaper and telegraph office—the first since Salt Lake City; end there may have been five thousand Inhabitants-most of them Chinese and Indians-within the limits which now inclose Neveda; but many of these were "prospecting" in the mountains and gulches, so that there can kardly have been two hundred desent dwellings in the Territory-not more. Now, Nevada bas a Legislature, several citics, any number of stores and hotels, and came very near heing made a State last fall. Now the Tribune understands that Prof. Silliman has gone out to make a geological survey of and report upon its mineral resonrces, which are undoubtedly great. Even now, when hardly five years have elapsed since their discovery, the silver mines of Nevada yield n greater annual product than those of any other country, Mexico excepted. And this yield is clearly not a hundredth part of what It may and will be. Bn', leaving these to

"THE UNION OF THE CONSTITUTION AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS."-Mr. Clay, in his memorable speech before the Legislature of Kentucky in 1850, said:

If the agitation in regard to the fugitive slave law should continue and increase and become alarming, it will lead to the formation of two new pariles, one for the Union and the other against the Union. Present parties have heen created by division of opinion as to the system of national policy—as to finance, free trade, or protection, the improvement of rivers and harbors, the distribution of the pro-ceeds of the public lands, &c.; but the systems of policy springing out of the administration of the government of the Union lose all their interest nd importance if that Union is to be dissulved. all important, pervasive, and paramount in-terest of the Union itself, and the platform of that Union party will be the Union of the Constitution and the Enforcement of the Laws; party and it should be accordingly formed, announce myself, in this place, a member of that Union party, whatever may be its comnent elements. Sir, I go further; I have d great hopes and confidence in the principles of the Whig party, as heing most likely to conduce to the honor, the prosperity, and the glory of my country. But if it is to be merged into a contemptible abolition party, and if abolitionism is to be engratted on the Whig creed, from that mostly transported the activated against the series of the serie ment I renounce the party and cease to be a Whig. I go a step further—if I am alive I will give my humble support for the Presidency to that man, to whatever party he may belong, who is uncontaminated hy fanati ciem, rather than to one who, crying out all the time and aloud that he is a Whig, mainines utterly subversive of the Constitution and the Union. This celebrated passage was levelled directly at the abolition Whigs or Whig abolitionists, who, under the leadership of Mr. Seward, were organizing a factious opposition to the great measures of compromise adopted two months before under the anspices of Mr. Clay. In other words, the passage was levelled directly at the faction, which, angmented by recruits from all parties, styled itself a few tested for the Presidency under the leadership aves of John C. Induced by the extensive sale and universal powerarity of Heofand's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorest Quacks and unccrupilous adventures have opened upon aniscring kumunity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vile-jy compounded with injurious drugs, and ohristened Toules, Stemachies, and Elitors.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholio preparations in pisthoric bottles and big belied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of carling, our aggravet disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Patent Medicines in general, through district of their ingredients and effects, I get know of ne sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the boundt of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. U. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for ananyears, under the impression that they were shiely an alcoheif mixture. I sin indubted to my friend Robert Ehoenisker, May., for the removal of this prepadice hy proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and iong-continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present rear, was followed by
